Probation & Parole Officers Made Numerous Arrests and Seized Guns & Drugs During an Overnight Warrant Sweep

Local Law Enforcement Assisted in the Operation

BATON ROUGE, La. – A Louisiana State Probation and Parole Tactical Team spent Wednesday night and early Thursday morning looking for individuals wanted for outstanding warrants. During the operation, officers made 18 arrests and cleared more than 20 warrants. Officers also seized more than two pounds of marijuana, nine handguns, an assault rifle and a bullet proof vest.

More than 30 officers from Probation and Parole's Baton Rouge, Feliciana and West Baton Rouge Districts, as well as officers from Elayn Hunt Correctional Center, assisted in the sweep.
